

The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes Adventure IV -- The Red-Headed League

Compilation of quizzes from the Diogenes Club and the Crew of the Barque Lone Star

1.	In the beginning of the story Holmes mentions the “very simple problem of Miss Mary Sutherland.” In which adventure is this case documented?
2.	Who has the hair that presumably makes him eligible to join the Red-Headed League?
3.	Where did the client get a tattoo?
4.	Whose bequest funds the Red-Headed League?
5.	Where are the offices of the League?
6.	What was the pay of the Red-Headed League position?
7.	What is located at 17, King Edward Street, near St. Paul’s?
8.	When Holmes met Vincent Spaulding for the first time, what did he see that he expected to see?
9.	Who played at St. James’ Hall that afternoon?
10.	Where is the client’s business located?
11.	What two schools had John Clay attended?
12.	What is an Albert Chain?
13.	Translate “Omne ignotum pro magnifico.”
14.	Holmes said that Vincent Spaulding was the _____ most dangerous man in London?
15.	“As a rule, the more _____ a thing is the less mysterious it proves to be.
16.	When Wilson tracked Duncan to the address he gave, what business did Wilson find?
17.	What hours did Jabez Wilson work each day for the Red-Headed League?
18.	The breastpin told Holmes that Wilson belonged to what organization?

19.	Where were the offices of the Red-Headed League?
20.	What was Jabez Wilson's nautical occupation?
21.	Where did the founder of the Red-Headed League, Ezekiah Hopkins, live?
22.	Why does Holmes thump his stick on the pavement in front of the pawnbroker's shop?
23.	The men awaiting an interview for the job with the Red-Headed League made the street look like?
24.	What was Jabez Wilson's occupation in "The Red-Headed League"?
25.	Who told Jabez Wilson about the opening in "The Red-Headed League"?
26.	In "The Red-Headed League", what assignment was given to Jabez Wilson?
27.	Why did Jabez Wilson consult Sherlock Holmes about "The Red-Headed League"?
28.	In "The Red-Headed League", who accompanied Sherlock Holmes, Dr. Watson and Inspector Jones on the final evening of the investigation?
29.	Why had Duncan Ross hired Jabez Wilson in "The Red-Headed League"?
30.	What was the ultimate objective of Duncan Ross and Vincent Spaulding in "The Red-Headed League"?
31.	In "The Red-Headed League", who turned out to be John Clay, an infamous criminal?

Answers

1.	In the beginning of the story Holmes mentions the “very simple problem of Miss Mary Sutherland.” In which adventure is this case documented?	A Case of Identity
2.	Who has the hair that presumably makes him eligible to join the Red-Headed League?	Jabez Wilson
3.	Where did the client get a tattoo?	China
4.	Whose bequest funds the Red-Headed League?	Ezekiah Hopkins
5.	Where are the offices of the League?	7, Pope’s Court, Fleet Street
6.	What was the pay of the Red-Headed League position?	Four pounds a week
7.	What is located at 17, King Edward Street, near St. Paul’s?	Manufactory of artificial knee-caps
8.	When Holmes met Vincent Spaulding for the first time, what did he see that he expected to see?	The knees of his trousers were dirty
9.	Who played at St. James’ Hall that afternoon?	Sarasate
10.	Where is the client’s business located?	Saxe-Coburg Square
11.	What two schools had John Clay attended?	Eton and Oxford
12.	What is an Albert Chain?	Worn by Jabez Wilson, it is a watch-chain made up of heavy links and named after Prince Albert.
13.	Translate “Omne ignotum pro magnifico.”	Everything unknown passes for something splendid – an epigram of Tacitus written about 98 AD.
14.	Holmes said that Vincent Spaulding was the _____ most dangerous man in London?	Fourth
15.	“As a rule, the more _____ a thing is the less mysterious it proves to be.	Bizarre
16.	When Wilson tracked Duncan to the address he gave, what business did Wilson find?	Manufactory of artificial knee-caps
17.	What hours did Jabez Wilson work each day for the Red-Headed League?	Ten to two each day
18.	The breastpin told Holmes that Wilson belonged to what organization?	Freemasons
19.	Where were the offices of the Red-Headed League?	Pope’s Court
20.	What was Jabez Wilson’s nautical occupation?	Ship carpenter
21.	Where did the founder of the Red-Headed League, Ezekiah Hopkins, live?	Lebanon, PA

22.	Why does Holmes thump his stick on the pavement in front of the pawnbroker's shop?	To see if it sounded hollow to reveal a cellar underneath
23.	The men awaiting an interview for the job with the Red-Headed League made the street look like?	A coster's orange barrow
24.	What was Jabez Wilson's occupation in "The Red-Headed League"?	Pawnbroker
25.	Who told Jabez Wilson about the opening in "The Red-Headed League"?	His assistant, Vincent Spaulding
26.	In "The Red-Headed League", what assignment was given to Jabez Wilson?	Copying pages out of the "Encyclopedia Britannica"
27.	Why did Jabez Wilson consult Sherlock Holmes about "The Red-Headed League"?	The league had been mysteriously dissolved
28.	In "The Red-Headed League", who accompanied Sherlock Holmes, Dr. Watson and Inspector Jones on the final evening of the investigation?	Merryweather, the bank director
29.	Why had Duncan Ross hired Jabez Wilson in "The Red-Headed League"?	To get Wilson out of his premises for four hours a day
30.	What was the ultimate objective of Duncan Ross and Vincent Spaulding in "The Red-Headed League"?	Steal a shipment of French gold from the bank
31.	In "The Red-Headed League", who turned out to be John Clay, an infamous criminal?	Vincent Spaulding

Dr. Jim Webb & Steve Mason