The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes Adventure VII – The Adventure of the Five Orange Pips

To eliminate threat may be smart,
Though, war over, why take it to heart?
 Still, who's dumber than
 The KKK man
Who kills generations apart?

Sandy Kozinn

The Klan made death threats with an orange pip
To victims of the crew of an American ship
 The Barque Lone Star was lost at sea
 After the murderers sailed away to get free
Now our society doesn't give it much lip

Karen Olson

The Openshaws seemed to be cursed,
A death in green scum got the first,
 Two went for a walk,
 His head hit some chalk,
While three died completely immersed.

Bill Dorn

Openshaw murders based on a pip
Victims could not follow 3 K's scrip
 Papers unplaced on sundial
 Killings done with sly guile
Bad guys met their end on sinking ship

Steve Mason
