

The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes

Adventure VII – The Adventure of the Five Orange Pips

1. Is this a conjecture and surmise case?
2. What points need clearing up?
3. What purpose did the cross-indexing serve?
4. What is the origin of the name "Paradol"?
5. What is an amateur mendicant?
6. Was Mary Morstan's mother living?
7. Why did Watson choose to stay at Baker Street rather than sleeping at home?
8. When did Lestrade begin stopping in to visit Holmes?
9. Was Openshaw near-sighted?
10. Can defeats (Holmes) be equated to bafflements (Watson)?
11. Were tires really breakable?
12. Are colonels usually foul-mouthed?
13. How was Openshaw educated?
14. What is the inner flap of an envelope?
15. Was an 18-year-old a legal witness?
16. Why kill without inquiry or search for papers?
17. How did Elias' eccentricity become known?
18. Should the advice given by Holmes have been obvious to Openshaw?
19. Why didn't Holmes protect Openshaw?
20. What clue did Watson observe on his own?
21. Why had Elias kept the papers?
22. Where was the one paper between the time of burning and the uncle's death?

La police des quais parvint à repêcher le corps d'un jeune homme

23. Why did Holmes intend to visit Horsham?
24. What were the comparative speeds of sail and steam?
25. Would the mail delivery have preceded the arrest?
26. How could Calhoun have traced Elias?
27. Why does Baring-Gould refer to Sign of Four footnote #162?

Ralph Edwards, BSI

October 14, 1994