

LIMERICKS

The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes Adventure XII – The Adventure of the Noble Bachelor

British nobles like St. Simon, I'm told,
Offered titles for American gold,
His bride thought herself widow
(Which St. Simon never did know)
Till her husband called her back to his fold.

Sandy Kozinn

The new Mrs. St. Simon was a stunner
But right after the wedding, she did a runner
As the cops dragged the lake
Holmes did a double-take
And Doyle thought this tale was a bummer.

Karen Olson

She vanished on her wedding day,
And went off to join Francis Hay,
For fear of the duke,
St. Simon did puke,
And clearly was mad as a jay.

Bill Dorn

Hatty was leading a double life
Both Robert and Francis to their wife
Dropped Bouquet and a note
Her dress and ring a float
Robert was having none of the strife

Steve Mason

