

The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes

Adventure XVI – The Adventure of the Cardboard Box

1. Does the glare place 221B on the east side of Baker Street?
2. Was 90 degrees all that hot?
3. Do we hear elsewhere of Watson's holidays?
4. Why Civil War emotion so long after so far away?
5. Why did Holmes not read the paper aloud himself?
6. Did Holmes read all of Lestrade's note aloud himself?
7. Were the "boots" to be worn?
8. Was brown paper, smelling of coffee, significant?
9. Why did Mary stop writing?
10. Was Susan the sort to offend medical students?
11. When did Susan leave Penge and move to Croydon?
12. Why did Holmes avoid sun on his face?
13. Did physicians wear gloves on 90 days?
14. Why a hotel, not a restaurant, for lunch?
15. What happened to the earrings?
16. Do reading and rereading produce a blank mind?
17. Why did Watson not know about the monographs?
18. Why did Browner write "S." rather than "Sarah"?
19. What do you infer from "Steady Old Jim"?
20. Why didn't Sarah go after Alec?
21. Shouldn't the boat have floated?

Ralph Edwards, BSI

April 15, 1994