His Last Bow

Adventure XLI – The Adventure of Wisteria Lodge

There once was a case rather strange.
Its geography spans a wide range.
 Shrunken heads, politics,
 A house in the sticks,
Then Holmes just lets Baynes win. Now that's strange.

Sandy Kozinn

Holmes told Watson it was a chaotic case
And he complained that life was commonplace
 But a dead white bird and a bucket of blood
 Soon lead Holmes to revenge in a flood
Justice the Tiger of San Pedro did not face

Karen Olson

Affairs at the Lodge Wisteria,
Caused John Eccles some hysteria,
 Holmes took on the case,
 And with little haste,
Did end all the weird mysteria.

Bill Dorn

Eccles seeks Holmes, unaware of Garcia's death
Between two houses he drew his last breath
 Don Pedro seeks revenge
 Her mate Burnet avenge
Political intrigue all enwreathe
